

MILWAUKEE RALLY WAS A BIG SUCCESS

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE IN ANNUAL REUNION.

Listen To Father Sherman—Son of the Hero of the Famous March to the Sea Praises Wisconsin Patriotism and Pays Eloquent Tribute to the Worth of His Father's Comrades.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 28.—The Rev. Father Thomas Ewing Sherman, son of the old commander of the army of the Tennessee, Wednesday night drew an audience that filled Plymouth church to overflowing. It was the annual entertainment given by the Society of the Army of the Tennessee and the young priest was on the programme to deliver the oration to the veterans of the army which his father led "from Atlanta to the sea."

FATHER SHERMAN.

In his address Rev. Father Sherman touched upon Wisconsin's position during the ten years of political agitation which preceded the war for the union. When the war broke out and Lincoln called for 75,000 troops Wisconsin was asked to furnish one regiment. Instantly she had four in the field clamoring to follow the flag. The speaker reviewed the part Wisconsin's soldiers took in the battles of Shiloh, Vicksburg, Chickamauga and Sherman's famous march to the sea, giving a graphic description of the different encounters and paying a glowing tribute to the gallantry of Wisconsin soldiers who fought for the union cause in the armies of the Tennessee, Ohio and Cumberland.

The Rev. Mr. Sherman eulogized the women of Wisconsin who contributed to the union cause, and closed with a reference to the number of men Wisconsin gave to the army—90,000 out of 800,000, or one in nine to our army. "You nerved the arm and steered the hearts of men as great as Lincoln, Grant and Sherman," he continued; "therefore is your state's name highest on the crest of the nation's greatness and we hail you as the Sparta of the west."

The society convened in its twenty-ninth annual session in the morning in the rooms of the Wolcott post, Grand Army of the Republic. Gen. Dodge called the assemblage to order and made a short address of welcome. Routine business in reference to the appointment of committees was transacted, and then the report of Secretary Hickenlooper of Cincinnati was read. He reported twelve deaths as having occurred during the last year.

Gen. Dodge reported that the work of preparing a statue of Gen. Tecumseh Sherman was progressing rapidly, and that congress had appropriated the sum of $10,000 with which to secure a suitable site in Washington.

A resolution was introduced and immediately carried which provides that the sons, daughters and wives of members may become members of the society on application. The women present applauded vigorously when the resolution was unanimously passed, and there were several applications filed at once.

A resolution was passed indorsing the bill now pending in congress whereby a national military park is to be established in commemoration of the siege of Vicksburg. It was reported that Speaker Reed has given assurance of his support of the measure.

GERMAN SECRETS EXPOSED.

Bismarck Had a Secret Understanding with Great Britain.

Berlin, Oct. 28.—The Leipzig Nachrichten, commenting upon the recent article in the Italian magazine Nuova Antologia summarizing the forthcoming book of Sig. Chiala, the Italian senator and historian, who advocates the withdrawal of Italy from the debt-bund at the expiration of the present term and the formation of a new debt-bund between Italy and Great Britain, says: "As a result of Prince Bismarck's policy Italy, despite her vacillations in 1892, remained in the debt-bund. It is out of Robilani made a previous agreement with Great Britain for the protection of Italian interests in the Mediterranean, he did only what Bismarck had done in the same circumstances."

Mazozais Declare for War.

Simla, Oct. 28.—Replying to the proclamation of the British commander on the frontier, Sir William Lockhart, the Mazozais protest against the occupation of Khyber Pass, Samana Range, and Swat Valley by the British forces and declare their intention of opposing the British advance.

Engages a German Financier.

Constantinople, Oct. 28.—The Porte

Has engaged Privy Councillor Raffaele, of the commercial department of the German foreign office, for five years at a salary of 35,000 marks per year, as under secretary of the Turkish Exchange to attempt a reorganization of the financial administration of Turkey.

DUCHESS OF TECK DEAD.

Cousin of Queen Victoria Expires Unexpectedly in England.

Richmond, England, Oct. 28.—The duchess of Teck, cousin of Queen Victoria, sister of the duke of Cambridge and mother-in-law of the duke of York, died at the White lodge here at 3 o'clock Wednesday. The death was entirely unexpected. It was supposed that she had entirely recovered from a complaint which caused her considerable suffering.

The duchess was born Nov. 27, 1833, and was married June 12, 1866, to Prince Francis, duke of Teck (eldest son of Prince Alexander of Wurtemberg), who was born Aug. 27, 1837.

The duke and duchess of Teck had four children, of whom the eldest, Princess Victoria Mary, born May 26, 1865, is duchess of York. The duchess of Teck was the daughter of the duke of Cumberland, seventh son of George III. She was 65 years of age. Her husband, the duke of Teck, served in the Austrian army, was a captain during the Austro-Italian campaign of 1859, was mentioned in dispatches for gallant conduct, but resigned after the campaign of 1856.

An official statement has been issued to the effect that the duchess of Teck died of cardiac failure, two hours after an operation which was performed upon her.

WILL FIGHT TO THE END.

Cuban Insurgents Will Not Accept the Proposed Reform.

New York, Oct. 28.—Tomas Estrada Palma, the Cuban delegate to the United States, when asked his opinion of the Cuban reforms proposed by the Spanish ministry, said:

"As the representative of the Cuban provisional government I am in a position to state most emphatically that the Cubans in arms will enter into no compromise with Spain. Cubans are fighting for absolute independence and they will entertain no peace proposals from the Spanish government based on anything but absolute independence. The Cuban patriots are firmly determined to carry on the struggle until their purpose is accomplished. They will listen to no proposition acknowledging Spanish authority over Cuba. I am speaking for men who are fully resolved to give up their lives, if need be, for their country's freedom."

A mass-meeting of Cubans will be held in New York soon to voice opposition to the Spanish proposals and declare for independence.

Mrs. Henrotin Is Honored.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 28.—There was a large attendance at the sessions of the National Household Economic Association Wednesday. Dr. Mary E. Green of Charlotte, Mich., president of the association, presided. Mrs. M. B. Pilcher, on behalf of the woman's department of the Tennessee centennial exposition, delivered an address of welcome. Mrs. Sarah F. Gans of Chicago responded on behalf of the association. Reports from general officers and state vice-presidents were then heard. The annual financial report of the association was presented. Mrs. Ellen M. Henrotin of Chicago was elected honorary president.

Cause of the Trouble.

Paris, Oct. 28.—It is understood that the fundamental basis of difficulty between France and Great Britain in West Africa is that France declines to recognize the treaties concluded with native rulers by officers of the British Niger Company until the text of such treaties has been officially communicated to France by the British government. Thus the French government claims that many of the treaties made with African potentates in behalf of France take precedence over the treaties negotiated in behalf of the British Niger Company.

Legion of Honor.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 28.—The grand council of the Northwestern Legion of Honor opened its annual session in the senate chamber at the capitol Wednesday. There were 100 delegates present, coming from Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. At the morning session Grand Commander Hodgman named committees on appeals and secret work. Reports were made by the grand commander and the grand secretary. The proceedings were conducted behind closed doors.

Large Guaranty Deposited.

New York, Oct. 28.—In anticipation of the sale of the Union Pacific Railroad under foreclosure of the government lien, a check for $6,000,000 was deposited Wednesday for the reorganization committee with Special Master Cornish. The check represents 10 per cent of the sum to be paid for the road, and its deposit was required as a guaranty of ability to meet the conditions of the sale.

Situation Shows Improvement.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 28.—A statement issued by the state board of health shows that there have been two new cases of yellow fever at Cayuga and one case near Raymond Wednesday. No new cases are reported from the other infected points.

W.C.T.U. MEET AGAIN THIS TIME WITH US

ANOTHER TEMPERANCE CONVENTION IN SESSION.

Delegates Ready For Work—Three Hundred Arrive From Toronto For the National Meeting—Five Thousand Visitors Are Expected to Attend the Convention.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 28.—With white ribbons to the front, the women of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union are lining up for the twenty-fourth annual campaign. They got in from Toronto last night—that is, 300 of them did—and others are drifting in from all corners of the country.

Although the convention will not assemble until Friday, an executive committee meeting is scheduled for this afternoon. The national officers do not seem at all worried by the recent world's meetings. Their friends say they will be re-elected.

The majority of the delegates passed a few hours at Niagara Falls. In the evening they went to a reception given by the local Woman's Christian Temperance union for Mrs. Mary T. Burt, the New York state president. The national officers who will probably be re-elected are: Miss Frances E. Willard, president of the national association; Katherine L. Stevenson, the recording secretary; Mrs. Barker, the national treasurer; Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, the vice-president at large; Mrs. Hoffman, the recording secretary.

Buffalo women believe that at least 5,000 visitors will attend the convention, aside from the delegates. One delegate at large will be allowed for each auxiliary state and territorial union, and one additional delegate for each 500 of the active, paid-up membership; the general officers of the union, four general officers of each state and territory, the boards of national superintendents, organizers and evangelists, general secretaries and ex-officio members of the convention.

The purity conference opened at the North church today, presided over by Dr. Mary Wood-Allen, president of the National Purity alliance.

On Friday morning at 9 o'clock the convention will be called to order by President Willard. Miss Willard will make her annual address; there will be reports from the national treasurer, Mrs. Helen Barker, and the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stevenson; also reports of organizers. Friday evening Mayor Edgar C. Jewett will welcome the women.

Last Work at Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 28.—The world's Woman's Christian Temperance union convention ended with a meeting of the executive committee Wednesday. The world's banner for the largest increase in membership went to Japan; Miss Tomo Inoyne will take it home. Requests for missionaries from Syria, Spain, Italy and Mexico were left in the hands of the general officers to be filled at the first opportunity. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will be commemorated in 1898.

ACCEPT DYNAMITE THEORY.

New York Central Officials Think Malice Caused the Great Wreck.

Cold Springs, N. Y., Oct. 28.—President Depew's opinion that the disaster of last Sunday morning on the New York Central railway was the result of a dynamite explosion planned by enemies of the corporation finds many upholders among railway officials and citizens familiar with the conditions. An officer said: "If the embankment of the railroad was torn up by dynamite the motive of those who did it was not robbery, but revenge. A rigorous investigation is being made, and at least one man may be arrested today."

Fever Death Rate High.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 28.—The warm weather which prevailed here Wednesday had an appreciable effect on the yellow-fever situation, there being a high death rate, but, despite the fact, the situation as compared with Tuesday, which was not reassuring, is about the same. The board of health officials are not at all alarmed and are untiring in their efforts to confine the disease, though it is admitted that the cases will not fall off until colder weather sets in.

Still Snowing in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 28.—All the trains which were blocked by snowdrifts in western Nebraska have reached Omaha. Rotary plows were sent out to release trains at North Platte and at Cheyenne. The heavy fall of snow on the Burlington road northwest of Alliance broke off all telegraph communication beyond that point. From Alliance west on the Wyoming division there was a heavy fall of wet snow.

Negotiations Still Pend.

Honolulu, Oct. 20.—Via San Francisco, Oct. 28.—The Hawaiian government's reply to Japan's latest letter will soon be forwarded and another step taken in the diplomatic controversy. The president and his cabinet are busy at work on the last letter from the Japanese government. The tone of the document is much more pacific than any of the previous communications.

REPLY FROM SPAIN SAID TO BE MILD

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS SATISFIED WITH DOCUMENT.

Not Yet To Be Made Public—It Is Believed At the Capital That the Spanish Government Will Be Given a Reasonable Time to Carry Out Its Plan of Reform.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The event of Wednesday at the state department was the receipt of the long-expected cablegram from United States Minister Woodford at Madrid, transmitting the answer of the Spanish government to his representations in the interest of peace in Cuba. It was not so long—in fact, there were a little less than 1,600 words in the message—for Mr. Woodford instead of cabling the whole of the Spanish answer to his note had contented himself with reducing the matter to a brief outline.

The first copy was taken at once to the president. After due opportunity had been allowed the president to read the message an application was made for a statement of its contents or nature. This was declined by Secretary Porter, and it was said that under no circumstances would the correspondence be made public before consideration by the cabinet.

From unofficial information that has reached certain administration officials in advance of this message of Mr. Woodford as to the nature of the Spanish reply it is evident that in neither language nor subject matter is the communication likely to be taken as offensive by our government. It may be, it is true, regarded as insufficient to meet the issue presented by Mr. Woodford in his note, but officials of the state department say that in view of what has already been accomplished by the new Spanish cabinet in reforming abuses in Cuba, in removing Weyler and in projecting what appears to be a liberal measure of autonomy, our government will certainly rest, at least until congress assembles, and afford the new Spanish government a reasonable time to carry out its plans.

The Spanish minister, Senor Dupuy de Lome, consented for the first time to speak concerning the policy of autonomy which the Spanish government proposes to apply to Cuba. Under this policy the island will have a political system on the lines of those of Canada, or of the American states, maintaining its individuality on all internal affairs and yet retaining its place as a part of the federal system. It will have a viceroy or governor-general, as is always the case in the maintenance of a colonial system, such as that of Australia, New Zealand or Canada. The island will have its own legislature, chosen directly by the people, who will enjoy universal suffrage. From the majority in the legislature the governor-general will choose his ministry. At the same time Cuba will have representation in the Spanish cortes, as well as her local legislature. The representatives to the cortes will also be elected by the people of Cuba through universal suffrage and will not be selected by the ministry, as has been erroneously stated. The ministry will be responsible to the legislature and not to the governor-general. The subjects before the legislature will include those of taxation, tariff, public instruction and all matters of the internal administration of the island in the broadest sense of this term.

Spanish Cabinet Meets.

Madrid, Oct. 28.—The cabinet sat four hours Wednesday and discussed all aspects of the Cuban question both in relation to the United States and to the finances, which, according to Senor Puigcerver, the minister of finance, offer less serious complications than have been reported.

Lieut.-Gen. Weyler has called the government renewed assurance of his loyalty and of his intention to prove it all demonstrations on his departure from Cuba.

Annual Masonic Meetings.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The grand commandery Knights Templar of Illinois held its second session yesterday morning in the Masonic Temple. Amendments to the code of regulations were adopted and officers were installed. The grand council of Royal and Select Masters of Illinois met in annual session at 10 o'clock. S. O. Spring, Peoria, was chosen grand master. In the afternoon a new code of statutes and regulations was adopted. The grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Illinois met at the Temple this morning.

Grave Crisis in Austria.

Vienna, Oct. 28.—The present deadlock in the Reichsrath, owing to the German obstruction, has created a critical situation, and in some quarters a suspension of the Austrian constitution is believed probable.

Buda-Pesth, Oct. 28.—Francis Kosuth, son of the celebrated Hungarian patriot, made a speech in the lower house of the Hungarian parliament, urging the government to take advantage of the chaos in Austria "and try for the independence of Hungary."

Seal Conference Adjourns.

Washington, Oct. 28.—After a session Wednesday, lasting two hours, the international seal conference adjourned until next Monday.

PULLMAN'S WILL FILED.

Annuity Only for the Sons of the Palace Car Magnate.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Leaving one-sixth of his $7,600,000 estate in trust to endow a free manual training school for the sons of poor men, George M. Pullman, by the terms of his last will and testament, filed in the Probate Court yesterday, cut off his twin sons with an annuity of $2,000 each. Two hundred thousand dollars is to be expended for grounds, buildings and apparatus, the remaining $1,900,000 of the endowment to be held in trust for the maintenance of the school. In the clause which bequeaths to George M. Pullman, Jr., and Walter Sanger Pullman an annual income of $3,000, the father's posthumous message to these, his only sons, informs them that Mr. Pullman believed them to be incompetent to manage a large property.

Of the rest of the immense estate all but $1,900,000 is left in trust in equal portions to the two daughters, Harriett Pullman Carolan and Florence Pullman Lowden. These two will receive $250,000 each absolutely upon their becoming 35 years old. Mrs. Pullman receives the Prairie avenue mansion and the income of $125,000, also $50,000 for the first year following the death of her husband. The brothers, sisters and old friends and employees of Mr. Pullman receive bequests ranging from $2,000 to $50,000, and certain old household servants are remembered in smaller gifts.

By the operation of the inheritance-tax law the state will receive nearly $150,000 from the several heirs to the estate.

MANY DIVORCES VOID.

Federal Judge John R. Thomas Makes a Sensational Ruling.

Vinita, I. T., Oct. 28.—Judge John R. Thomas of the United States court, now in session here, made an important and far-reaching ruling Wednesday. Judge Thomas held that the publication of warning notices to non-resident defendants in divorce proceedings were null and void, and that actual service must be had on such defendants. The decision, if sustained in the higher courts, to which an appeal will be taken, will set aside scores of marriages contracted by parties who have obtained decrees of divorce from the courts on the default of non-resident defendants.

Big Loss by Fire in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 28.—A lighted cigarette dropped by a thoughtless clerk is supposed to have caused the fire which on Wednesday afternoon destroyed the white-stone building at the corner of 7th and Chestnut streets occupied by the general offices of the Wabash railroad.

The fire came so suddenly that the Wabash company was prevented from saving anything. Every record in the office of the chief engineer, rights of way, real estate deeds and surveys of every description were destroyed. An officer of the company estimates the company's loss at $500,000. Real estate men place the valuation of the building at $400,000.

Striking Engineers Yield.

Glasgow, Oct. 28.—It is now understood that the employers' federation and the delegates of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers at their meetings Tuesday communicated with each other through the board of trade and that a conference between representatives of the employers and delegates of the striking engineers has been practically arranged, the latter having agreed to withdraw their demand for the eight-hour day, which has been the great stumbling block in the way of arriving at a settlement of the great strike.

Tanneries Burned at Morris, Ill.

Morris, Ill., Oct. 28.—The most destructive fire in this region for many years occurred Wednesday when the Woelfel Leather company, one of the largest tanneries in the country, lost its manufacturing plant located in this city. The establishment was worth about $350,000, the loss amounting to about $225,000. The fire originated in the tallow sheds. The plant was insured for $140,000.

Condemns Mob Law.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 28.—Mob law was severely condemned by Gov. Atkinson in his message to the Georgia legislature which convened here Wednesday. He advocates stringent legislation against mobs and insists that the legislature pass a law laying every county wherein such a crime is committed subject to a large indemnity to the relatives of the mob's victim.

PLEVA JUROR HARDER THAN THE COURT

JUDGE FISH GETS AROUND THE VERDICT.

There Will Be No Effort For a New Trial But the Defendant Will Be Allowed to Plead Guilty to Murder in the Second Degree—No Milwaukee Boodlers.

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 28.—[Special]—After a conference between Judge Fish and the two attorneys in the Pleva murder case it was decided not to push the claim for a new trial on the part of the defense. Judge Fish stated that from all the circumstances surrounding the case he did not feel that he was justified in pronouncing the sentence provided by law for the punishment of first degree murderer, and he requested the attorneys to arrange between themselves to have the prisoner plead guilty to some lighter charge, so that a life sentence would not be a necessity. The attorneys will make it murder in the second degree, for which there is a punishment of from fourteen to twenty-five years in the state prison. Pleva was convicted by the jury of murder in the first degree.

Found No Boodlers in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Oct. 28.—[Special]—The grand jury called by Judge Waiber, at the request of the common council, has submitted its report, adjourned and indicted nobody. A council committee is censured for neglect of duty. If there are any boodlers in the city the grand jury failed to get on their trail. This grand jury cost the county about $1,300.

NEW PARTY ISSUES A CALL

Reform Organizations Urged to Cooperate with Greenbackers.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—At a meeting of the national paper money party managers in this city Tuesday evening the following public announcement was issued:

"To the Populists and all Reform Organizations: We call upon you to assist us in helping to bring about money reform. We are convinced that we can have no other reform until our money system is changed. Direct issue of money by the government will prevent the enormous drain on the people that free coinage has created. The nation must perish if the present financial system continues."

"We urge you to join hands with us. We will gladly join hands with you in this one vital reform."

"JOHN D. GILL, Chicago.

"W. M. CLAY, Kansas City.

"J. C. ANKER, Chicago.

"JAMES SELDON COWDON, Washington.

"F. W. T. BARNARD, Chicago.

"LYMAN E. STOWE, Detroit."

Since the public announcement of the new party Mr. Gill has received, he says, nearly 1,000 letters from different parts of the country. Requests are made for copies of the platform of the organization.

WHITE MEN KILLED.

Further Details of the Fighting in Colorado.

Denver, Col., Oct. 28.—Gen. Otis has received a telegram from the vicinity of the trouble between the Indians and game wardens, in which it was stated that white men as well as Indians were killed in the fight. No other facts in addition to what has already been published were given.

A telegram from Fort Duchesne says that more than 300 Indian men, women and children are off two reservations. Calcomp, Game and other head men of the White river tribe, known to have been mixed up in the Meeker massacre, and to this day opposed to whites and their laws, are with them. The Shoshones are from Fort Hall, Wyo.

Lowest Searchlight's Record.

Santa Anna, Cal., Oct. 28.—Betonica, a 3-year-old pacer, went a mile against time, unplaced, in 2:06 3/4, beating the record made by Searchlight last week of 2:07. Betonica went to the half in 1:05. The last half was made in the remarkable time of 1:01 3/4.

May Have News of Andre.

Christiana, Oct. 28.—Advices which have just reached here from Spitzbergen say that the crew of a wrecked ship have reached there and that a rumor prevails that they have brought news of Prof. Andre.

Rev. C. L. Berry Is Convicted.

Pawnee, Okla., Oct. 28.—Rev. C. L. Berry, formerly a Presbyterian preacher, well known in Missouri and Kansas, has been convicted of wrecking the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of this place. Sentence has been deferred.

Opposes Cuban Autonomy.

Madrid, Oct. 28.—The constitutional conservative party, while condemning illegal action, has decided to constitutionally oppose the granting of an autonomous form of government to the island of Cuba.

Chilean Minister Sent to France.

Caracas, Oct. 28.—Gen. Pietri has been appointed minister from Venezuela to England and France. He sailed today and will renew diplomatic relations with France.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH BY NO MEANS BAD

STATE BOARD ISSUES ITS SEVENTEENTH REPORT.

Sewerage Is Discussed—New Laws Are Given and Some Blunt Talking Is Given On the Subject of Vaccination—Exhaustive Discussion of Diphtheria and Croup.

The state board of health of which Dr. Q. O. Sutherland of this city is a member has just issued its seventeenth report. The new law relating to vital statistics is included in the report. It provides that parents or householders shall report to the health officer within 30 days the birth of any child within their household. "Said notice shall give the full name of the child (if it have any), color, sex, name of other issue living (born of the same parents), full name of father, occupation of father, full name of mother previous to marriage, hour, day of week, of month, and year of birth, the place, town or township, and the county in which born, birthplace of father and birthplace of mother.

Nodody shall be buried or incinerated before a permit has been received from a health officer and no such permit shall be issued until there has been delivered to such health officer or clerk, as the case may be, a certificate containing the full name of the person deceased, maiden name, if wife or widow, color, sex, race, occupation, age (giving years, months and days) names and birthplace of father and mother of deceased birthplace of deceased, name of wife of deceased, name of husband of deceased, date of birth of deceased, condition (whether married, single or widowed), date of death, residence at time of death, primary and secondary cause of death, place of death, duration of disease, whether deceased was ever a soldier or a sailor in the service of the United States, place of burial, name of undertaker, or other person conducting the burial or incineration, date of certificate, number and date of burial permit and said certificate shall be signed by the physician last in attendance. This law does not apply to Milwaukee.

The new laws relating to the transportation of dead bodies; to the adulteration of foods and drugs, and to bakeries are given in full.

The board speaks rather bluntly on the subject of vaccination. It regrets exceedingly that there is no provision of law that enables boards of health to employ vaccination against smallpox. "The rule of the state board," the report says, "providing for vaccination of school children, while it was declared null and void by the supreme court, did a vast amount of good in the state, for it was very generally observed, and as a result the people of the state are probably better protected by vaccination than ever before, but as vaccination runs out, and many children are being born without any protection, the board does not hesitate to express its belief that if some law is not enacted in the near future to provide for vaccination, the state will be liable to an outbreak of smallpox within the next decade that will prove very disastrous. In order for any community to be free from smallpox all new-born children should be vaccinated, and all persons should be revaccinated every five or seven years, but with no law relating to the matter, only a small proportion of the people will avail themselves of this means of protection. One of the most unaccountable things in the enlightened age in which we live is the fact that there are those who oppose vaccination, and also those high in authority, as in our courts, who are lukewarm in, or are even opposed to its universal practice. When every medical college in the civilized world, nearly all recognized text books used in colleges that treat of the subject, and ninety-five per cent. of all physicians of all schools teach and practice vaccination as the best known preventive against one of the most loathsome diseases that affect mankind, it certainly seems unaccountable that enough influence can be brought to prevent the enactment of laws that will make its practice universal in any well enlightened commonwealth."

On the subject of bovine tuberculosis the report says: "The board desires to call attention to the belief of those who are familiar with the subject that bovine tuberculosis is slowly but surely increasing in our state. This being the case, it becomes highly necessary for some action to be taken to control it. It is well known that milk cows affected with this disease have the germ of the tuberculosis in their milk, and that the milk from such cows becomes very dangerous for infants and invalid food, and hence all such milk should be condemned. It has been proposed that the board, together with the state veterinarian, and the university experiment station act together and make a general inspection of all large herds of milk cows, test the animals with tuberculin, which is the most reliable test we possess at the present time, and which is almost positive, and thus ascertain what animals are infected; this being done, it is believed that owners will see that it is to their advantage from an economic standpoint, as well as a sanitary one, to weed out all infected animals as soon as possible; surely if this is not done milk will be condemned on a large scale, the disease will increase among the herds, and in a few years many herds will be an entire loss to the owners. In other states, notably in Massachusetts and Minnesota, this work has been carried on to a large extent, and owners are co-operating with the health boards in the effort to eradicate the disease. It is observed that blooded stock is infected to a greater extent than any other, and that the disease exists to a far greater degree than is recognized, the board has no doubt.

The report of the committee of the American Public Health association on the cause and prevention of diphtheria is given in full. It says of croup: "The sordid membranous croup is yet, we regret to state, a most serious disturbing factor in our fight against diphtheria. It is with surprise and regret that we see how firmly entrenched in the minds of the medical profession is the idea that croup is a non-infectious disease. It has been demonstrated over and over again, so plainly that he who runs may read that nearly nine tenths of these cases are laryngeal diphtheria. Yet despite all this data certificates are constantly sent in to the board of health as croup. These are the landmarks, or rather, tombstones, marking the feet of epidemics of diphtheria. It is noted with satisfaction, however, that many of our state provincial and municipal boards of health are beginning to be emancipated from such ideas and now regard the terms 'membranous croup' or 'croup' and 'diphtheria' as synonyms, and treat them accordingly."

Of antitoxin it says: "Two years have now elapsed since the introduction of the new remedy for the treatment and prevention of diphtheria. It is believed that there has been sufficient evidence submitted to form an unbiased opinion of its true value. The consensus of opinion in all countries has been very favorable to its use. Its adherents now number thousands, while the opponents can be numbered as few. Antitoxin, while believed to be a remedy par excellence, is believed to have increased the number of cases in many instances; especially is this so in the smaller places and rural districts. The reason assigned for this is that formerly, when a child had diphtheria, it usually died, and parents kept their children away from the infected premises; now, as a rule, the rapid recovery of a child causes doubt as to the correctness of the diagnosis, and it is allowed to resume its associations with the bacilli in the throat, thereby disseminating the disease."

SUED FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Details of the Case Brought by Gertrude Taurag in Circuit Court

Louis Udolowish, who is the defendant in the new breach of promise case in Judge Bennett's court is a prominent Monroe business man—one of the proprietors of the Leader. Suit is brought by Miss Gertrude Taurag, of Chicago. She asks damages in the sum of $10,000. The action is brought in the Green county circuit. The summons and complaint was served upon him by Sheriff G. O. Stearns and he has twenty days in which to answer. A. S. Douglas and J. L. Sherron are the attorneys for the plaintiff. In her complaint she alleges among other things that when they became engaged an engagement party was given which was attended by relatives and friends of both parties. Their engagement was made public and papers were signed according to the Jewish rules. He presented her with a diamond ring and gold watch, and without cause he has compelled her to give them back and break their engagement.

She is a pretty Jewess and is nineteen years of age. The defendant is the son of H. Udolowish, and is the eldest of the young men in business in Monroe.

Uniform Rule Soon To Be Inaugurated on the St. Paul Road.

When Agent J. S. Bowdoin, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road, returns from Europe, he may be surprised to know that his duty will be to don a "military cap" that will bear the word "Agent" in letters of gold.

Baggage man Grant Noyes will wear the same kind of cap, except that his will bear the word "Baggage man" in letters of silver.

This is the result of a new order that has just reached this city from Milwaukee & St. Paul headquarters. All agents and baggage men in cities along the line will be required to live up to it.

The Northwestern road has had its men uniformed for some time, and the plan is pronounced a good one.

FORTY-SIX FARMERS SELL IN DELAVAN

ROCK COUNTY PROCESSION ACROSS THE LINE.

Many Barley Raisers From La Prairie and Johnstown Go to Walworth County—How Prices Compare In the Two Markets—Much Coal and Lumber Bought.

Forty-six farmers who have in years past hauled their barley to Janesville unloaded their summer harvest at Delavan warehouses Monday of this week.

They received thirty cents a bushel for their barley and declared that Janesville buyers would allow them only twenty two cents. Stevens & Puerner, the Jefferson buyers who have been in Janesville for ten days, however, have been paying an average of twenty nine cents and have paid thirty cents for a large proportion of the barley submitted, so there cannot have been a cent a bushel on the average in hauling eighty-bushel loads ten miles out of the way. The offers of twenty two cents by Janesville firms is believed to be what started the exodus.

Many farmers who believed this was the ruling Janesville price have hauled barley to Delavan and Delavan for the same money that could be had from Stevens & Puerner here.

The LaPrairie man who counted forty-six of his neighbors in line around Delavan warehouses Monday said he would much rather have come to Janesville and so would all the farmers around him.

Another farmer, who lives three miles west of Johnstown was in town this morning and told the same story. He said he was in Delavan, Monday and that he counted fourteen farmer's wagons loaded with coal and several wagons full of lumber. The coal and lumber was being hauled back into Rock county by men who usually buy in Janesville. The forty-six farmers who live south and east of this city and who sold their barley in Delavan Monday are as follows:

William Kirkpatrick, H. Harper, John McArthur, John Beaton, John Youngblood, Frank Thomas, J. A. McArthur, Frank Still, Frederick Bass, William Caldwell, Frederick Schaller, J. C. Scott, J. C. Caldwell, R. W. Jones, J. C. Godfrey, Frank Wetmore, C. Gardner, E. H. Hanson, J. N. Thomas, G. Kemp, H. C. Kemp, F. Coulter, D. O. Hanthorn, W. D. Brown, A. D. Barless, Archie Hadden, W. R. Lamb, James Hadden, W. Anklaam, J. D. Little, J. W. Frost, E. N. Hanson, H. C. Proctor, Theo. Hanson, Alex. Hayes, Charles McCarthy.

MARRIED IN EVANSVILLE.

Wesley Walters and Miss Ethel Mihill

United At the Home of the Bride.

Evansville, Wis., Oct. 28—Wednesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, Rev. W. Short, united in marriage Wesley Walters and Miss Ethel Mihill, both of this city. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. D. Mihill. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mihill and is one of Evansville's most popular young ladies. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walters of Oregon, and is one of the firm of Snashall & Walters, druggists of this city. Only relatives and a few intimate friends attended the wedding, after which all partook of a bountiful supper.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Walters will return to this city and make their home in what is known as the James Gelave residence on First street, which the groom has all furnished.

DANFELDT'S LIFE UNKNOWN

Insane Man Claims to Have no Particular Home Nor Relatives

Charles Danfeldt, that wandering farmer boy, who was adjudged insane by Drs. Whiting and Gibson, was taken to Mendota today. Where Danfeldt's home is, or where his relatives live is a mystery to the police. The patient seemed willing to go to Mendota, saying that it was nothing new for him and that he was once an inmate of the northern hospital for the insane at Oshkosh. The police will make an effort to locate his relatives so that his care may be charged against his home county.

POWDER BURNS IN FACE

Floyd Broughton Has Fun with a Flask, and Is In Doctor's Hands.

Floyd Broughton met with quite a serious accident coming home from a hunting expedition near Brodhead. There were five or six boys in the group, and there being a little powder left, they decided to use it up, so turned some out on the ground, laying the open flask down near by. Floyd touched it off and was burned about the hands and face.

SHORT GUARANTEE ON CYCLES

Local Dealers Have Been Notified That a Sixty Day Limit Will Prevail.

Cycle manufacturers have sprung another surprise on the local retailers. Wheels for the season of '98 will be sold only on a sixty day guarantee.

Two years ago one year's time was allowed while last year it was reduced to six months.

Local dealers prophesy that another year no guarantee will be allowed.

PLAN FOR FARMERS' MEETING

Milton Junction Convention Will Be Held in January as Usual.

At a meeting of the Pomona Grange at the court house, arrangements were made for the annual farmers' convention in Milton Junction. The convention will be held some time in January.

A. C. Powers of Beloit, as chairman, called the meeting to order, with L. T. Rogers of Milton, in the secretary's chair. The representatives present from the various granges were Thomas McRae and wife, Du Lac grange; George Barker and wife, Janesville grange; H. G. Lloyd and wife, La Prairie grange; A. E. Wilcox and wife, Harmony grange; and B. Blaisdell and wife, Center grange.

The programme for the convention was outlined in a general way, but another meeting will be held later to arrange details.

DELIGHTFUL PIANO PERFORMER

Miss Lay, Who Is With the Maximilian Concert Company.

Miss Georgia Lay, the accomplished pianiste who has been so long and favorably known, has been secured by the managers of Maximilian Dick. Miss Lay is the highest salaried accompanist in the United States and this fact attests the firm intention of the management to render the organization in every way superior. Miss Lay has spent the summer among the great musicians of Vienna, preparing herself especially for the winter's tour. As a soloist she has few rivals, as an accompanist she is unexcelled. The Maximilian Concert company will appear at the Myers' Grand next Tuesday evening.

GYPSY CAMP MAY START HERE

Three Good Looking Girls Wanted As Real Fortune Tellers.

C. V. Good of Galesburg, Ill., who brought Eving Carlsburg's gypsy camp here last week and who afterwards sold out his interest in the venture, is to start a camp of his own on the road. He is looking for three Janesville girls if they can fill the bill. They must be good looking with dark complexion, dark eyes and hair and with plenty of life in them. Of course they must wear the regulation gypsy costume with plenty of jewelry attached.

The work is easy—the salary $2 a week with railroad fare and hotel bill thrown in.

NAIL FACTORY IS RUSHING

Plenty of Work Ahead Through the Winter Months—Business Brisk.

A busy winter is ahead for the Janesville Barb Wire Works. The present indications are that the factory will run with full force six days in the week. The manufacture of wire nails has proven a profitable venture for the Janesville concern, a fact which is a source of pleasure throughout the city. A force of about thirty-five hands will be engaged this winter.

Gair's Queen Skirt Supporter.

"All good things come to those who will out wait." Ever since shirt waists have been in existence ladies have been annoyed with their dress skirts sagging in the back. The "Queen" is also an excellent support for leather belts, as it prevents them from stretching and cracking. You'll like the "Queen."

La Forma--The Dress-maker's Helper

Of all the different specialties put forward for dry goods stores to sell, not one of them did what La Forma does, namely, make easy work for the dressmaker in the most important thing she has to do—fitting the waist perfectly.

With La Forma in a waist there isn't a crease or wrinkle; the waist fits and you know what that means to a dressmaker and to her customer. La Forma is perfectly adapted to silk and fancy waists or those made over a foundation. It makes any style of waist fit better. La Forma is canvas and hair cloth, cut, moulded and patented; the user has only to follow instructions. Try La Forma in your next waist; your friends will compliment you on the result. Price 75 cents.

THE STAFF OF LIFE.

Bread is the staff of life. All right—if it's good bread. A man can live and thrive on nothing but bread—if it's good bread. It is something that has to be studied to be done well. We make good bread, pies, cakes, cookies and everything a bakery should make. We do nothing else. Day in and day out we do nothing but bake. Isn't it natural that we should do it better than some one who hasn't studied it, and made a business of it?

FROM THE CAMP

A Secret Handed Down by the Indians to Civilization that is the Cause of Thanksgiving to Many.

Their Knowledge of Health

Thousands To-day Who Have Availed Themselves of Their Medicines Praise the Instinct by Which They Learned Nature's Secrets.

Did you ever get up in the morning with a bad taste in the mouth, a furred tongue, dull pains in the head, sickness at the stomach, accompanied during the day by pains under the right shoulder blade, a difficulty in breathing, spots before the eyes, a dry cough, cold hands and feet and hundreds of other similar distressing symptoms? If so you can make up your mind that your liver is out of order, and as soon as you have made up your mind to this, the sooner you make up your mind to get it in a healthy condition again, the better it will be for you. Nothing leads to such serious trouble as a clogged liver, as shown by the above symptoms. Poisons which it is its duty to discharge from the body remain in the system. They soon become hoarded up in the other vital organs. They hinder them from performing their functions, and destroy their usefulness. The blood becomes frightfully corrupt and it is but a short time before the sufferer is completely prostrated with an illness that is apt to keep him many weeks from his work. If indeed he succeeds in ever again getting well. We should advise all sufferers from such complications to resort to that great remedy that was known and used by the Indians, Kikapoo Indian Saliva. For a disordered condition of the liver, as well as for all affections of the kidneys and stomach, and for purifying the blood, it is positively marvelous. The following letter, in this connection, will explain itself.

Vernon Centre, Minn., Kikapoo Indian Medicine Co., Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer from a disordered condition of my liver, which was accompanied with various stomach troubles. I experienced the most severe headache, I at last took Kikapoo Indian Saliva and it has cured me. I cannot say enough in its praise to all I meet. Yours respectfully, Carrie B. Newell.

Kikapoo Indian Saliva will do for any one what it did for Mrs. Newell. It takes but a few days to show the good results that may be expected and in a short time, if persisted in, cures are always accomplished. This remedy can be bought of any druggist for $1 a bottle.

MRS. BARNES, POSTMISTRESS

Congressman Cooper Recommends Her for Delavan Office.

Congressman H. A. Cooper announced yesterday afternoon that he had recommended the name of Mrs. D. B. Barnes of Delavan, for postmistress of that place. There was a lively fight in Delavan over the matter. Mrs. Barnes is the wife of Attorney Barnes of Delavan. She had the longest petition, and was endorsed by leading republicans.

Mr. Cooper also recommended Thomas W. Moorefield for the postoffice at Elkhorn, and Benjamin Trever then at Belmont.

SIMPLE AT FIRST.

It is Foolish to Neglect Any Form of Piles. Cure Them at the Beginning.

Piles are simple in the beginning and easily cured. They can be cured even in the worst stages, without pain or loss of blood, quickly, surely and completely. There is only one remedy, that will do it—Pyramid Pile Cure.

It allays the inflammation immediately, heals the irritated surface and with continued treatment reduces the swelling and puts the membranes into good, sound, healthy condition. The cure is thorough and permanent.

Here are some voluntary and unsolicited testimonials we have lately received: Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St. Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

Major Dean of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from piles for forty years, from itching piles for twenty years and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure have effectually cured me.

Most druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure or will get it for you if you ask them to. It is 50cts. For full sized package and is put up only by the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

WITH THE YARDMASTER

J. W. BATES, as a good many Janesville people know, is a prestidigitator—one of the cleverest, between Red Jacket and Rockton. He does not claim to be a necromancer or a sorcerer or anything touching on the black art, but just a plain dealer in sleight of hand work. A number of his friends including the Yardmaster, stood for an hour last night watching him palm a wash tub in his left hand and do other tricks that would keep Magician Keller guessing. He told me to take any card I wished from the deck, which he held in his hand, look at it and then hide it, and he could tell me what card I had taken. While he was not looking I took the tray of clubs. Then with a magic look, he ran through the deck and found the tray of clubs missing.

"Ah, ha! I have it," he said, "look me in the eye, as I do all this through the science of mental telegraphy."

I looked him in the starboard eye as requested.

"You have the tray of clubs" he said with a look of wisdom.

"Correct!" everybody yelled and jumped about three feet in the air.

"Now gentlemen," said Bates, placing his hat on the back of his head and pulling up his coat sleeves. "I'm going to show you a trick that would set all the people in Rock county thinking. I have known men to leave their work in the harvest fields to see this trick. Now while I am looking the other way, you slip a card from the deck, look at it then put it in your pocket."

"All ready," I said.

"Well, now you go to the telephone and call up some one you are acquainted with in Milwaukee, and ask him what card you have in your pocket and he will tell you."

I went to the 'phone and called up Milwaukee.

"Hello! Deutschland. Vie gehtes, heute abend."

"Vie geht es, yourself? What do you want?"

"Well I'll tell you. There is a man here doing tricks. Now, what card have I in my pocket?"

"Oh come off the perch and hang up the 'phone. Go home and sober up."

When I told what my friend said Bates could not believe me.

"However," he said, "the air must be just right, otherwise mental telegraphy is a sticker. The other night the air was just right and I turned a sack of soft coal into a barrel of rolled oats."

"Yes sah, I do re kon dat de colored population will jes' fling 'emseves when de cake walk come off nex' month," remarked the colored porter at the Grand hotel yesterday. "Yes sah, I can jes' see dem boys gaint' side wise to keep from flyin'." Taint' often we git together, but when we does, lordy, lordy, man, its scan'lus de way we 'thow ourselves. Jes' come up Mr. Man and see how reckless I does walk. Ef I don't git that cake I won't walk no mo'. I'll jes' side.

GOLF CLUB HAS SPENT $426

Much Work Has Been Done on Buckleton Links This Summer

At the adjourned annual meeting of the Siniissippi Golf club in Smith & Pierce's office last evening officers were elected and arrangements were made for the annual party. The officers chosen were:

President—J. C. Wilmarth.

Vice President—F. E. Fifield.

Secretary—J. P. Baker.

Treasurer—C. C. Russell.

Directors—C. O. McLean, P. J. Mount, Charles E. Pierce, Charles L. Fifield and Charles Schaller.

It was decided to hold the annual ball of the club on Thanksgiving night, Thursday, Nov. 25, at the Light Infantry armory. It will be a strictly invitation affair and the price of tickets will be one dollar a couple.

A committee of arrangements was appointed, consisting of Albert Schaller, Charles C. Russell and George M. McKay. They will be assisted by a committee of seven ladies.

Secretary J. P. Baker's report showed that the club had spent $426 on the grounds and club house this season and was out of debt and in position to put the grounds in much better condition another year.

MILTON TOBACCO NEWS

Movement in the 1897 Leaf Crop Has Not Yet Begun.

Milton, Wis., Oct. 27—J. L. and M. F. Green have a force of men at work here sampling 900 cases of '96 tobacco which was packed at their warehouse in this village last season. The leaf has come through the sweating process in fine condition, being nicely dried off, of good color and entirely free from damage. Both of the large warehouses here are packed full of old leaf and until it is shipped out there will be no possibility of handling the new crop at this place. Some very large sales of '96 Wisconsin have been made this month in the New York market. The American Tobacco company closed a deal with firms in Philadelphia and New York for 3,000 boxes, last week 1,700 cases of '95 were sold at a range of 11 to 14 cents, and 120 cases of '93 at 9 to 10 cents. There is no movement in the '97 crop worthy of note, the few sales that have been made in Dane and Vernon counties being to local buyers.

CUSTOMER TALKS OF CLERKS

People In Front of the Counter Show Curious Phases of Nature.

Editor Gazette—Most merchants read with care the article in last evening's issue in regard to clerks or representatives of business men, and to many it was very valuable advice. Nevertheless we must admit that we purchasers are often at fault, and expose that part of our nature to the clerk that we would not expose to a friend. Generally it is the most highly cultivated aim of a clerk or business man to be agreeable with all whom he may have dealings. He must conduct himself either naturally or artificially, as one of the best friends of everybody individually, and in time he becomes a sort of a public friend.

From his position he may see more of the real nature of a person than the person would care to expose to the public. One's character rather than reputation is seen by the clerk from behind his counter.

The customer with means is seldom in a hurry, he buys an article, pays his bill, and goes out very good naturedly. The man with limited means is always more in a hurry and is never quite suited, but it takes him longer to make the change than it did to make his purchase. The man to look out for is always in a terrible rush, a true critic he is of everything. He considers himself a little better than the clerk, and sees nothing in him worthy of respect. He will fumble about in his pockets for the price, but seldom having enough change with him, he orders the clerk to book it until next time. It is evident to all that the man of means is the man of brains, respecting all, suspecting none. The busy overbearing customer is fully as adominable as an impolite or a careless clerk.

CUSTOMER.

"I can't see now any family lives without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. R. Adams, a well known druggist, of Geneva, Al., in a letter inquiring the price of a dozen bottles, that he might not only have it for use in his own family, but supply it to his neighbors. The reason some people get along without it, is because they do not know its value, and what a vast amount of suffering it will save. Wherever it becomes known and used, it is recognized as a necessity, for it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. For sale by C. D. Stevens, Pharmacist, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

"Amoskeag Teasel Down"

NIGHT DRESSES.

Men's, at 97 cents.

Ladies, at 97 cents.

Misses', at 71 cents.

Children's, at 71 cents.

These Night Dresses are made out of that soft, beautiful, fluffy Outing Flannel known as the "Amoskeag Teasel Down."

They are made by the reliable Janesville Clothing Company. Every part of the garment is made upon honor.

These garments are from 3 to 6 inches longer and from 6 to 12 inches fuller in the skirt than those made by other manufacturers.

The beautiful Teasel Down used in these garments is worth 25 to 30c more to the garment than most of the common Night Dresses.

These garments are nicely hemmed, have pearl buttons, have welted seams, and every garment is guaranteed perfect.

Then the styles and patterns are beautiful to look upon, the handsomest coloring made in Outing Flannel.

You want some of these to keep you warm in cold winter nights. Come and get them at our special sale on Saturday, October 30th.

The Flues

in a

Favorite Base Burner...

Are not only very large, but they are so constructed and arranged that the heat is kept to the outer surfaces of the stove, and is thrown in the room easily and quickly.

There are two cold air flues at the back of the stove, which are so placed in between the hot air flues that they draw the cold air from the floor and discharge it from the top very hot. The heat from these flues can be carried to an upper room if desired. You won't go wrong if you buy a Favorite Base Burner.

THEATRE CARS DO NOT PAY

Only Eleven People Rode Home From the Opera House Last Night.

People who attend the performances at the opera house will be likely to walk home as far as the street cars are concerned, hereafter.

Superintendent Cummins has made up his mind this week, that it does not pay to run the cars two hours over time for the small amount received.

Last evening the Milton avenue car had six passengers from the opera house audience. The First ward car had five passengers, and the Main street car went down empty.

Sailors Desert from the Baltimore. San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 28.—Since the cruiser Baltimore has been anchored in the stream preparatory to going to Honolulu her commander has reported to the police the almost daily desertion of three or four of the crew. Already twenty have succeeded in escaping and unless a stricter watch is kept it is believed that another draft of men will have to be sent here from the east to fill her complement.

Yellow Fever in Mexico. San Diego, Cal., Oct. 28.—Dr. McKay, quarantine officer here, has received word that nine deaths from yellow fever occurred at Mazatlan, Mex., from Sept. 26 to Oct. 2. The American consul at Mazatlan declares that the officials are attempting to disguise the real state of affairs. The Mexican government has ordered a strict quarantine of the port.

May Meet in Melbourne, Australia. Toronto, Oct. 28.—The fourth biennial convention of the World's W. C. T. U. adjourned without having selected the place for the next world's convention. The matter will probably not be decided by the committee for some months. The sentiment of the committee now is in favor of Melbourne, Australia.

Iowa Chapter, Order Eastern Star. Ottumwa, Iowa, Oct. 28.—The twentieth annual session of the grand chapter of Iowa, Order of the Eastern Star, began Wednesday, with 1,200 delegates and visitors in attendance. The report of the grand secretary shows the order to be in a flourishing condition, with over ten thousand members in the state.

Millions to Move Cotton Crop. New York, Oct. 28.—The sum of $2,000,000 was transferred by the sub-treasury to St. Louis Wednesday. The money is being paid out to help move the cotton crop.

Nearly Four Million Bushels. New York, Oct. 28.—The available supply of corn in the United States and Canada east of the Rocky Mountains is 3,891,000 bushels.

Paul Dana the Sun's Editor. New York, Oct. 28.—The trustees of the Sun Printing and Publishing Association elected Paul Dana president of the association and editor of the Sun, as successor to his father, the late Charles A. Dana.

BLOW FROM A LEVER BROKE HIS JAW BONE

PECULIAR ACCIDENT TO FOREMAN THOS. DONNELLY.

Hit On Chin While Setting Up a Machine—Nine Months Old Child of Mr and Mrs. E. Boylan Has Lip Split Open and Narrowly Escapes Death.

Thomas D. Donnelly, a foreman at the Janesville Machine Works, is now nursing a fractured jaw. He was struck in the chin by a lever and the bone was fractured. Donnelly was setting up a machine and was handling a lever when it suddenly flew back striking him a blow that stunned him for the moment. He was removed to his home, No. 3, Chestnut street, and the attending physician discovered that the jaw bone was fractured.

Child's Lip Split Open.

While playing in her high chair the nine months old daughter of Edwin Boylan of First street, Monterey, fell to the floor splitting her lip for several inches.

Dr. Pemberton took eleven stitches in dressing the wound.

The accident came very near proving fatal, the little one falling fairly on her head with nothing to break the force of the shock.

End of His Thumb Cut Off.

Floyd Dunwiddie lacks the end of his right thumb and carries one finger in bandages on account of an accident at the C. & N. W. machine shops in this city. He was working at the threading machine and his right hand was caught and badly crushed in the cogs the end of his thumb being taken off completely.

Kick Cost Him a Finger.

William Stockman, who is in charge of the Fethers & Jeffers farm at Indian Ford, was looking after a sick horse, when the animal kicked him and smashed his hand. It was found necessary to amputate his little finger.

Killed as Soon as Insured.

Charles Millbrandt who lost his life in a stone quarry south of Evansville took out a $1000 life insurance policy last Friday with a New York company. The insurance papers arrived in Evansville from New York twenty-four hours after his death and Mrs. Millbrandt will be paid the amount of the policy. Millbrandt, it is said, carried an additional $1000 policy besides owning the farm on which he resided.

THREE SUPPERS ONE NIGHT

Nobody Had an Excuse For Going Hungry Last Evening.

Three church suppers helped to keep hunger from getting the upper hand in Janesville last evening.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church served chicken pie in the church parlors. The Court Street church ladies had an unusually tempting menu, and the tables were garnished with flowers and vines. The sisters of St. Joseph's convent spread their tables in the empty store adjoining Rose & Vankirk's grocery, and cared for as many as could be seated.

RECEIVER FOR THE SOCIETY

Holders of Fair Association Stock Are Willing to Let Go.

The meeting of the agricultural society to close up outstanding matters will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the court house as stated in the call published elsewhere. A proposition will be made to appoint a receiver for the society in order that any moneys that come in may be put into the proper channel. The fair buildings were insured and the risk to the society is therefore not great even should the grounds remain in the society's name.

HE GETS $384 JUDGMENT

W. H. Graves Wins His Suit on Two Promissory Notes.

There was no appearance on the part of the defendants in the case of W. H. Graves against Alpheus Wood and Clark Kidder, when the case was called in the municipal court at ten o'clock this morning. The court found for the plaintiff in the sum of $384.25 and costs to be taxed. The question arose over the payment of two notes.

HEALD DRIVES 35 HORSES

GOES IN A "CARAVAN" FOR ELDERLY BRIDE

ROMANCE OF 62-YEAR-OLD WILLIAM MOSTIN.

He and the Faded Gray Horse and the Brindle Dog Are On Their Way to Missouri Where the Wedding Bells May Ring Next Month.

There was nothing about William Mostin to indicate his sentimental mission when he "gid-dapped into town behind a horse that was once black but had faded into a weather beaten gray.

There was no lovechild in Mr. Mostin's eyes but there was a warm spot in his heart. The brindle dog who is his only companion on a pilgrimage from Fond du Lac county to Missouri could doubtless tell a thing or two about his master's soliloquies. The brindle dog sleeps with him in the wagon and shares his rations.

Mr. Mostin is sixty-two years old, single and full of romance. As said before he is on his way from Fond du Lac county to Missouri in a wabby, covered wagon but when he comes back this way he will not be alone.

He confided this to a Gazette reporter who saw him stocking up the wagon with crackers and link sausage this forenoon.

It would not surprise Mr. Mostin at all according to his own story if the wedding bells rang for him in Springfield, Mo. He used to live in Springfield, and when sixty-two years of single blessedness had made him desire a companion he naturally thought of Springfield first. He is not taking the step rashly or without due reflection he says, and Janesville will have pleasure in greeting him and his bride when they come back through on their wedding trip in the squeaky, covered wagon.

TALKS TO EPWORTH LEAGUE

Rev. Will E. Grose To Address Janesville Societies Next Week.

Rev. Will E. Grose of Chicago, who is making a tour of Janesville district, in the interests of the Epworth Leagues, will be in this city next Monday evening, November 1, and meet the chapters of Court Street and First churches. The meeting will be held at the First church. Mr. Grose comes under the direction of Rev. Frank A. Pease, the district president, and for the purpose of arousing an interest in the literary department. It is probable that he will give his lecture on "Evolution of Bob." No admission will be charged. The meeting is open to the public, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

COMMENT ON JUDGE BENNETT

Baraboo Paper Speaks of His Activity in Mind and Body.

Judge Bennett of Janesville, who is filling Judge Siebeck's place at this term of court, is getting well along in years for the position he holds. He is seventy-seven years of age, and has three years yet of his term to fill. He says at the expiration of that time he will have had enough of the bench, and will retire from active service. Mr. Bennett is very active in mind and body notwithstanding his years.—Baraboo Republic.

DOUBTED A HARD LUCK TALE

Judge Phelps Looked Incredulous When Hugh Miller Told Before Him

Hugh Miller told Judge Phelps that he had a good job offered him on a farm at $50 a month if he could commence at once. The story sounded a good deal like others that Miller had told during the summer and did not prevent Judge Phelps from sending him to jail for five days. Chief Hogan, who made the complaint, said it was the same old story—plain drunk.

SAXTON IS UP AGAIN.

Six Bullets Will Be Required to Kill Him—He Says.

Isaac Saxton of Darien, who was shot in the head by Joseph Bundy, arose from his bed yesterday morning, dressed himself, walked down stairs, undressed and ate breakfast. His condition would appear to be improving. Mr. Moore, a son-in-law of Mr. Saxton's was in town last evening and says that his father-in-law declares that it will take just an even six bullets to settle him.

BENEATH DEATH'S CLOUD.

Elmiron Randall.

Elmiron Randall who for fifty years has been a resident of Johnstown Center, died this morning at 2 o'clock.

Death was the result of a complication of diseases brought on by advanced years.

Mr. Randall was born in the east and was seventy-six years of age.

When a young man Mr. Randall left New York state for the Badger state, locating in Rock county where he has since made his home.

He leaves two daughters, Miss Louise Randall of Johnstown Center, and Mrs. Detridge of South Dakota.

Services will be held at the home tomorrow, at 1 o'clock, and from the Baptist church in Johnstown Center, at 2 o'clock. The interment will be in the Johnstown Center cemetery.

WANTS $8,400 FOR ARREST

A. N. Martin, Jailed on a Board Bill Seeks Heavy Damages.

A. N. Martin who was dragged out of bed several weeks ago at the Hotel London and lodged in jail charged with beating a hotel bill at Neenah has brought suit for damages against Landlord Chenevert who swore out the warrant. Mr. Martin thinks $8,400 would be about the right sum to act as a balm to his injured feelings and fully console him for his loss of reputation and prestige through an acquaintance with prison life. The ground on which the suit is based is that the commitment, on which Martin was arrested and incarcerated in the Winnebago county jail, was void, stating no cause against Martin known to the statutes of the state of Wisconsin.

Martin was convicted and confined in the Oakwood jail in default of the payment of a fine of $25 and $32 costs but afterward secured his liberty through a writ of habeas corpus.

USE GRANITE ON THE STREETS

H. S. Woodruff Suggests a Good Idea to Janesville Aldermen.

H. S. Woodruff suggested to a group of aldermen this morning, some ideas on road making that were regarded as valuable. Mr. Woodruff has had much experience in improving the roads between his farm and the city, as well as on his farm, and says the aldermen can find no material as good as the granite boulders to be screened from the gravel beds around the city.

"Considering the value of the screened gravel that remains, he said, 'the granite would be really cheaper than limestone, and would last much longer. There is plenty of granite within the city limits, and it can be screened and crushed at small cost. It makes a road bed that is very compact and that lasts almost forever. It is far different from the lime stone, which disintegrates under the influence of the weather and makes a sticky miserable clay. The plan has been tried in other cities with much success; only the larger stone being used and they being put through a stone crusher."

NO Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION YET

Mrs. Kline Is In Indiana—Date Of Her Coming Uncertain

The reception committee of the Y. M. C. A. held a meeting at the building last evening to arrange a reception for Secretary and Mrs. J. C. Kline. Chairman Cleland presided. Nothing definite toward setting a date was done, however, as Mrs. Kline is visiting her parents in Indiana, and the date of her coming to Janesville is not certain.

ONE TRACK MUST DO, THROUGH THIS CITY

REST OF ELROY-CHICAGO LINE DOUBLE TRACKED.

Surveys Are Being Made From Harvard to Barrington and Evansville to Madison Will Come Next—Beloit and Afton Route Serves As Partial Equivalent.

The C. & N. W. double track from Elroy to Chicago is being completed as rapidly as possible. It is not likely, however to pass through Janesville.

Surveyors are now at work laying out the double track between Barrington and Harvard and the survey between Evansville and Madison will soon be made.

The road between Harvard and Evansville is not likely to be double tracked for the reason that the route via Beloit and Afton and the route via Janesville and Evansville furnish the equivalent.

The difficulty about the C. & N. W. sewer was overcome today. The New Gas Light Co. raised the Academy street main so as to pass over the sewer at Academy and Wall street. The line of the sewer and the line of the gas main proved to be on the same level and the railroad company paid the expense of moving the gas main.

JOHN WATSON tells the common council that the Milwaukee street bridge is safe for five or six years.

BEWITCHED.

'Twas a dismal day and a dour looking lot
That crowded the car when a dear little dot
Of a woman came in and laughed,
And, presto, the dark was with sunshine shot.
For she was a witch, though she knew it not—
Each face told a tale of her craft.

Her rippling laughter that ran in quest
Of victims found never a one to contest
Its contagion. The whole crowd fell,
Even the crossiest and coldest and crabbedest,
By responsive smiles to the witch, confessed
That they'd yielded to her spell.

The cynic, who'd sworn his heart bankrupt Quite—
Not a sign of a sentiment left—on sight,
'E'er he knew it, honored a draft.
Like the rest, his face fairly beamed in spite Of himself. They were all bewitched by that mite
Of a body who came in and laughed.
—Mary Norton Bradford in Boston Globe.

THE LION SLAYER.

He is a young doctor and a surgeon
On board one of the small gunboats placed on a great African lake—fresh colored still, though slightly tanned by exposure to the lake winds, with merry Irish eyes of blue gray, a square cut jaw and obstinate chin, a long upper lip, a little whisker at the temples and short wiry black brown hair.

Like many men of his class, he is a potential Darwin, and, having no other means to travel and study natural history,
he has entered the navy as a surgeon.
He has landed on the shores of the lake for a day's shooting, hoping to get an elephant at least, but meantime content to study sunbirds. Let us in imagination enter his mind, see through his eyes
what he saw and lay bare his thoughts.

Grass, a forest of grass, with stout knotted stems six to eight feet high,
and abundant leaves starting from every joint. Each stem ends in a drooping plume of ripened seeds. As the doctor forces his way through the tangled herbage and canelike stalks the seeds shower down upon him, each one staid-ied in its descent by its long, feathery stipule. The seeds are sharp pointed and barbed at the ends, so they pierce their way through his khaki clothing easily and scratch the perspiring flesh beneath.

This raises to exasperation the discomfort already felt to be well nigh unbearable, for the doctor's face is now
the color of raw beef from the stifling heat and the frightful exertion of forcing his way through such a thicket of grass and his hands are scratched and cut by contact with the razor edged leaves. His terti hat is constantly being dragged off his head, and it is all he can do to carry his gun and elbow his way through the obstructing herbage, protecting his face as well as possible with the left hand.

So he is in an ill temper and cannot stop to notice the small weaver birds of flame color and black, the extraordinary stick insects, exactly simulating stalks of grass, and the green, leaflike mantises which through the dense brake
on either side. He is after bigger game.

The most experienced of his boys pioneers him through the stifling grass jungle. Another boy with a second rifle follows behind. The idea is "elephants," elephants having been reported hereabout the previous day, when suddenly they have reached a space where the grass is a little drier, a little less dense) the pioneer boy comes doubling back on his master with every gesture expressive of "Hush!"

The doctor stops, mops his boiling face (thankful for the momentary halt)
and asks inquiringly, "Elephants?"
"No," says the negro in a panting whisper; "lion. There, there! No, not there. You see that ant hill? Well, climb on to its side, and you will see the lion lying in a clear space just beyond. A male lion, truly. Its body is nearly white, and its mane is black."

With express rifle at full cock, the doctor advances gingerly through the interlaced grass, bent nearly double,
keeping the muzzle of the gun directed straight before him and shielding its sensitive trigger from the intrusive grass stems. The ant hill is reached.
He clambers on to its sloping side.

"Good God, the boy's right! What a beauty, and asleep too!" But something in the doctor's coming has aroused the lion, not ten yards away—aroused him partially, for there is no sudden movement.

He raises the great head set in a collar of yellow, brown, black mane.
Slowly the dim nictitating membrane passes over the yellow eyes, but as they are focusing to meet his own gaze the doctor fires—fires precipitately (his position on the sloping ant hill is insecure), wounds the lion somewhere, somehow, but does not kill him. The beast gives a sharp, explosive roar, seems to jump into the air with all four feet and then in three bounds has crashed off into the grass jungle. Sil-lence.

"Well, I'm a muff!" thinks the doctor. "He wasn't ten yards away, and I didn't kill him dead. I don't know quite where I hit him—in the chest, I think. But he can't be far away, and I must finish him off."

He descends from the ant hill into the clear trampled space where the lion had been lying. At the spot where the beast had made its first bound into the dense grass hedge there is a great squirt of blood over the tangled greenery—the dark crimson liquid still drips from leaf blade to leaf blade. "Ah; thought so! He must be pretty badly hit."

Two black faces, with starting eyes and anxious grins, now cautiously peer around the ant hill. The doctor, raising his head, recognizes his boys and beckons them down. The three converse in whispers. The situation is explained—how the lion was wounded, the direction in which he bounded away. The boys urge caution. "Lion plenty fierce.
Mkango mkali nditu. Master must take care; better climb tree and look all around—not go into grass." But there is no tree anywhere near.

A boy hoists himself to the slender summit of the ant hill and reports that he sees the grass moving in the direction whither the lion had withdrawn—moving as though a stationary animal were shaking it with convulsive throes (all of which is explained more by gestures than by words). The doctor, clambering up beside the boy, thinks he can even descry (as the grass stems bend and droop before some writhing object)

the lion's waving tail and a yellow gray haunch. He fires and descends from the ant hill to reload. A rush comes through the grass, a deafening roar,
some great yellow object in the air above him—momentarily—dark against the sky—yellow eyes—(insensibility).
"Click, click, click, click, click, click,
click. I wonder what that funny sound is. Am I in a trap? No, it is the engines of the steamer—or is it the lion beating in my temples? Then I have been asleep, and in broad daylight with the blue sky above me and in the broiling sun. How foolish! But no—must be something more. I know there has something happened. Let me think—the lion, of course—a lion jumped at me. Then I must be wounded. Let's see" (raises himself painfully on his right arm).

"My God! A pool of my own blood!
My left arm has no feeling. Chewed by the lion, hand almost detached, rest of arm a mass of blood, muscle, bone and khaki. Oh, God, I'm going to die—can't live—he has torn open my stomach! That must be the pancreas. I'm like a butcher's shop." (Whimpers. A blubbering sound attracts his attention.)
"Hello! You here, Juma? Plucky chap.
Thought you'd have cut and run.
Where's Saidi? Eh? Speak louder. I'm deaf. Oh, gone to gunboat. Quite right.
"What—the lion?" (Turns his head slightly.) "There, still living; looks pretty sick too." (The lion is lying four yards away, partly on his side, one crippled fore paw turned back, the other outstretched, and the great head resting on it, eyeing the men with solemn yellow eyes, no longer fierce, the pupil shrunk to a pin point.)

With each conclusive shudder of the lion's body the blood round him widens
slightly. "By heaven, if I've got to die,
I'll die like a man, and he shall go first.
Who can tell? He might recover and hurt the boy. See here, Juma" (to Juma, who is supporting his back), "be very gentle, take a cartridge out of my belt, put it in the rifle—so. Now—ah, ah! Mind my arm. Now give me the rifle in my right hand and come between my legs—so. Stoop very low down, like that."

"Now, I'm going to rest the rifle on your shoulder and take aim. Keep very still, I won't hurt you. Keep still. I'll aim just between the brute's eyes." (A minute's pause. Bang! Doctor falls back fainting. Lion stretches out his head three times with spasmodic upward movement, the tail and limbs—all but the crippled one—stiffen, the claws stand out from their sheaths and the beast dies.)

"Juma, is that you? Water; how delicious! More—and on my forehead—so.
What a brick you are! Upon my word,
I'd like to leave you something, Juma.
You must tell them that I said so, you know, for sticking by me. God bless you! Is the lion dead?" (The sobbing boy nods "Yes.") "Well, then, I must die, too. I'm enough of a doctor to know that. Don't cry. Tell them I bore it like a man. But it's beastly hard. Who'd have thought my day's shooting would have ended like this?" (Whimpers.)

"Beastly hard. I'm so young, and I've done so well up to now—and there's mother. Who will break it to her?
She'll never get over it—and Lily—and,
damn it all, I can't even send 'em messages! How can one tell such things to a black boy? S'pose I'm dying primarily from the shock—know I'm dying somehow—can't raise my head to look—mother, mother!"

"What rot to go on like that, as if it could do any good! See here, Juma, more water—so. Now listen. Inendirini amai, ndi mlongo. Iwe— Oh, God, how can I tell him? It's all slipping away from me. For the blood is the life.
Where have I heard that? The blood is the life—slipping away—slipping away.
I must be in a boat, it is so soothing—up and down, up and down—so restful."
(Sighs gently. Dies.)—Sir H. H.
Johnston in Saturday Review.

The Shah's Day's Work.

A vivid account of the daily life of the shah of Persia is contributed to The Illustrated Magazine by Mr. J. F. Fraser, who visited Teheran in the course of his world's tour on a bicycle.

"How does the shah spend an ordinary day? Well, he is a busy man. He rises early, performs his devotions, has a piece of thin, pasty Persian bread and a glass of sweetened tea. Then at about 8 o'clock he receives his ministers. He is slovenly in habit and walks up and down the room with his slippers flip-flapping. Indeed, the story goes that the reason he parted with his first wife was because she constantly complained that he did not wash himself.

"He dictates dozens of letters, hears dispatches read, consults authorities, attends minutely to every detail of business. This continues for six hours at a stretch. Then he has his breakfast. All the food is carefully prepared, and a prince of the royal blood is responsible that no tricks are played. The shah, according to etiquette, eats alone. Between 50 and 60 dishes are served, but his majesty only touches two or three.
Knives and forks are things unknown
at court, and the shah eats everything with his fingers—greased rice, mutton and fruit.

"During breakfast extracts from European papers, chiefly French, are read to the shah. Following breakfast the shah probably has an hour's sleep, and then, after some glasses of tea, he will amuse himself with working a little telegraph instrument, playing backgam-mon with his ministers—who are careful not to win—setting and resetting plants in the gardens or taking photographs. He has even been photographed in bed and has pictures of himself dressed in uncomfortable Prussian military attire and even in the garb of an English curate."

METHODIST BISHOPS MEET.

Important Gathering in Mount Vernon Church, Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 27.—The semi-annual meeting of the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church is being held here. The object of the meeting is the assignment of bishops to the various conferences which will assemble within the next six months. Lay representation in the annual conferences is almost certain to receive some attention. Of the 600 delegates which composed the last general conference, about 200 were laymen and 400 ministers. An effort was made at that conference to put through a resolution admitting to its subsequent sessions members of the laity, both men and women, in equal numbers with the ministry. So radical a change in the government of the church requires a three-fourths vote of the annual conferences in the United States, and a two-thirds majority in the general conference. The requisite three-fourths in the annual conference was obtained, but the attempt to get a two-thirds majority in the general conference failed. The reopening of the subject is due to the fact that the majority of the Methodist Episcopal ministers in the country desire the change.

Austrian Statesman Resigns.

Vienna, Oct. 27.—In the lower house
of the reichsrath today Vice President
Abrahamovics read a letter from Dr.
Kathrein, president of the house, notifying the unthraus of his resignation of its presidency. The resignation was undoubtedly due to the recent disorderly scenes in the reichsrath.

Senator Morgan Is Ill.

San Diego, Cal., Oct. 27.—Senator Morgan's illness is said to be due to a cold which he caught on the battleship Oregon. At an early hour this morning a telephone message from the Coronado hotel stated that the senator was suffering from a high fever.

Woman's World.

The Training Home for Christian Workers opened its training department on Thursday, Sept. 30, with every prospect for a successful year. This is the fifth year of a work which, carried on under the fostering care of the woman's branch of the New York City mission, is giving young women daily practical training for missionary work in any home or foreign field to which they may be called.

Miss Rosina D. Rowe, the principal of the training department, is an enthusiast in her chosen work and discussed her methods and plans on the opening day with the earnestness and sincerity that characterize her.

"Our average number of pupils for the year is 15," she said, "but we could have many more if our accommodations were not limited. We have more applications for our trained workers than we can always respond to, and that, of course, is gratifying."

"From whom do your applications come?"

"From the pastors and workers of the city churches. They so often need assistants in tenement mission work, and they always prefer trained helpers, such as our young women are. An application came in a few days ago that we cannot yet fill. It is an excellent place for any young woman who is well qualified, and later on we can easily have one ready for it."

ROSINA D. ROWE.

"How far does your field extend?"

"If you mean how far our pupils go, why, we are well represented in various parts of this country and abroad. We have young women at work in Atlanta, Washington city, Austin, Santa Fe and Oakland, Cal. They are in schools and colleges in those places. They work under the home mission board."

"What is necessary for admission to your training school? Do the young women have to stand an entrance examination?"

"Not if they bring a diploma or certificate from the institution they have attended. But they must have a thorough educational foundation."

"What constitutes your course here?"

"Bible instruction by the best teachers that can be procured in New York city. Our pupils take the cooking course in the New York Cooking school, the course in white sewing at Pratt institute, Brooklyn, and the instruction at the lectures on first aid to the injured. Then numerous lectures are given here in the home on social and religious topics."

"What is the daily practical work of your pupils?"

"They visit the tenement houses and give religious instruction to the mothers and invalid members of the family who cannot get out. They teach the mothers how to care for babies and children, for our pupils have a trained nurse's course and find the knowledge thereby gained of the greatest possible value. They instruct the mothers on matters of ventilation, cooking and how to select and best prepare the cheapest foods. They organize and attend children's meetings, and they are well prepared to give instruction in primary methods, blackboard drawing and object teaching. They give lectures and talks to mothers on child nature and development. They go to the hospitals and dispensaries. So you see how varied and far-reaching are their influence and work."

"Have you any of your graduates abroad?"

"We have them in India, Italy and Japan."

"Do they graduate and receive regular diplomas?"

"They complete the course and are given certificates. We have a number of our students in New York city, Brooklyn and Newark."

"What is your special need in the house now?"

"Books. We want our students to have an excellent library here in the house, and we would be glad to receive contributions of books."

Miss Rowe showed the reporter over the home, which is attractively and comfortably furnished. Tuition is free, but $100 a year is charged for board, which, of course, is merely a nominal sum.—New York Tribune.

Woes of the Saleswomen.

The "saleslady's" side of the shopping question is not often heard, says a writer in a New York journal. When it is, she is usually making a complaint about the customer who shops, turns over goods and never buys. The woman behind the counter does not care for sympathy, but she appreciates politeness in the customers she waits upon.

This is a story of a small New England city where people are a little more shaken together than they are in larger cities. This woman was really a lady and was a store clerk from necessity. There she had many pleasant dealings with a customer who always came to her to be waited upon and whom she took great pains to serve.

It chanced during one of the winters that she was invited to card parties, at which she met her customer socially. That is, there was a formal introduction. Possibly there was not as much real sociability between the two at the card parties as over the counter.

Then the two met on the street. The customer was looking in an opposite direction. They met again, and the customer, although her eyes were apparently gazing straight into the eyes of the clerk, saw only vacancy.

"I am sensitive," said the clerk to herself. "She did not see me. I will be more sure another time."

In the meantime the customer had called at the shop and received the usual respectful attention from her favorite clerk.

Then for a third time customer and clerk met on the street, and this time there could be no mistake. The customer did see the clerk, it was plain, and it was equally plain that she did not intend to speak to her.

"I did not expect her to do more than speak to me courteously," said the clerk, relating the experience, "but under the circumstances I did expect that. I have waited on her for the last time. She comes into the shop now, and if I am entirely at leisure I let her stand until some one else is ready to take her order. She has taken up my time in the shop telling me of her intimate family affairs, in which I am in no way interested. She has been very pleasant and very familiar. I do not care for that, but I do expect a courteous recognition."

Undoubtedly it is foolish for any woman, clerk or not, to feel that it is worth while being offended because some woman fails to recognize her. Conditions in New York are different. Just such an episode could hardly arise here, but snobbishness either here or elsewhere does not seem to be an admirable quality. The "saleslady" appreciates considerate treatment.

"She was so nice," one of them was heard to say enthusiastically a few days ago in commenting upon a recent customer, "and she said she had such a nice saleslady."

Women East and West.

That wonderful and practical, hard-working Denver Woman's club is discussing the subject of a clubhouse, and now that the matter is under consideration there is no doubt that a clubhouse will materialize in very short order.

Mrs. Platt of the club has recently returned to Denver after a visit to her former home in the east, and this is what she says in The Rocky Mountain News:

"I felt as if I could not live there now. I never realized what a difference there is so much as on this visit. The women there are so timid. They are so afraid to take a forward step to initiate anything. They looked at me with wonder when I told them of the things we women do out here. They said, 'Aren't you afraid to do such things?' They need big clubs like ours to shake them up and get them out of their ruts. They have so much less to talk about than we have—that is, so much less that is interesting and worth talking about. I listened to six women one day discuss a certain new patent for a belt fastener—a 25 cent thing to keep your waist and skirt from coming apart in the back. They discussed the merits of that blessed thing for one hour by the clock. I would rather my waist and belt would gape open than spend that long talking over it. And yet the women are beginning to realize that our western women are ahead of them, more progressive and alert, and that they can learn something from us. The attitude of clubwomen toward us demonstrates that. I received invitations from six different states to come at their expense and address meetings on the work of the woman's club of Denver. I was amazed—there is no other word to express it—at the fame of our club all over the country. Eastern women seem to marvel at it as if it were a fairy tale. They are far behind us in the style and finish of their year books, in their methods, in their practical work. To tell you the truth, I tried to want to stay back there and live near my six brothers and sisters, but I really couldn't. The west is too dear to me and too far ahead of the east."

It is not stated how far east Mrs. Platt's trip extended, but there is no doubt that the Denver Woman's club is a much more practical organization than any club in this part of the country. If it talks of art, it knows something of the subject, for it has collected works of art for the schools. If it talks of philanthropy, it can do so from experience, for it indulges in practical philanthropy, and examples might be multiplied indefinitely.—New York Times.

The Status of Woman in France.

For 50 years woman in this country has owned her own property, so that now there is no American probably who ever thinks of a woman as a human being who parts with all her possessions at her marriage. It is true that she may often surrender her spiritual possessions, and in some parts of the country, where a certain unwritten law has been recently declared, she may herself be so far considered as mere personality that her consent, otherwise her free will, plays no part in the issue which her husband settles summarily, but her visible possessions are her own, the moneys and lands that she brings and all that she earns belong to her, and the law gives her all the protection against the wrongs of husband, as of others, of which human crudity is capable.

In England a married woman's property act was passed in 1882. The Danish woman has had the right to collect and to dispose of the product of her toil since 1880. The Swedish woman since 1874 and the Norwegian since 1888 have had the same property rights. Even the woman who is the subject of the czar is the mistress of her own. But in France the woman of the humbler class who is married works for the man, keeps her money only if he will and must give it to him if there is the best of reasons why she should be permitted to withhold it, as, for example, if he be an idle drunkard, spending for his pleasures the earnings of the wife and mother that are needed for the household. Among the shopkeeping bourgeoisie, the woman works also alongside of the husband, is often the real head of the establishment, especially in the little businesses whose prosperity depends upon good taste, patience, tact and unflinching courtesy. And for the toil which knows little rest the possible maker of the family's prosperity receives what is granted by the head of the house, whose temper and awkward-mindedness may possibly prevent the wife's achievement of a still greater prosperity, involving a large dot, and therefore a more shining marriage for the daughter.—Harper's Weekly.

"Many have said their children would have died of croup, if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given, write Kellan & Curran, druggists, Seaview, Va. 'People come from far and near to get it and speak of it in the highest terms.' This is equally true of this remedy in every community where it is known. Buy a bottle at Stevens drug store and try it yourself."

Contest Over Iowa's Ballot Carried Into the Courts.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 27.—George L. Dobson, secretary of state for Iowa, will be cited for contempt of court if the attorney for the fusion populists of the state has his way. At the opening of the Polk county District court ex-Judge C. C. Cole, who has represented the fusion populists, will ask Judge Spurrier for attachment for the secretary of state. His action is a direct result of the Supreme court decision which allowed to stand without passing on the merits of the case the District court order commanding the state election board to strike from the official ballot the "middle of the road" populist ticket. It is doubted by many whether the attachment can be served.

Meantime the attorney general contends that the District court has no jurisdiction, and says the ballots will go to the voters with the names of the "middle of the road" populist ticket on them.

Few men in this country are better or more favorably known to the drug and medicine trade than Mr. E. J. Schall, buyer in proprietary medicine department of the Meyer Bros. Drug Co., St. Louis. He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm, freely, all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." Sold by C. D. Stevens, Pharmacist, corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Six-Year-Old Kills His Father.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Willis T. Norman, of 3542 Princeton avenue, was shot and killed last night by his son Walter, six years old. The child fired a pistol, which he thought was not loaded, and the bullet penetrated his father's right breast.

Good Printing...

Is like good painting—it demands and obtains a second glance. The second glance leads to thought about and knowledge of the thing portrayed, and then on to the artist or advertiser.

The kind of printing as well as the kind of painting that it pays to do and to have done is that which obtains this "second glance." Plenty of the other kind!

We are PRINTERS. Our work obtains glances of admiration, and thus leads on to the end desired. We don't do the "other kind." Put our job room to the test.

We show the nobbiest line in town, among them being some of the higher class that are gems of the cloak makers' art—exclusive styles direct from New York. A line for Misses' wear in sizes 14, 16 and 18 also in stock.

Coats for Girls.

Three hundred sample Coats for Misses, sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years, inexpensive garments for school wear that are proper as regards style and make up. Cute Coats, ranging in price from $3 to $10, that would ordinarily be one-third more. Tell the girls to call in after school and see them.

Flannelette Wrappers.

The new line is in, and it displays well made Wrappers in a splendid range of patterns; all sizes, 32 to 44. All of the regular styles in Print Wrappers are shown—75c and up.

Silk Waists.

There is an air about the line we handle that attracts. Other stores show waists, but there is something lacking in them when compared to ours. The talk of the town among women is the excellence of our waist showings. All the latest in blouse effects are in the line.

Our Millinery

Is Parisian in everything but price—and the difference in the latter is all in the favor of our customers. No prettier, more stylish hats than ours could be obtained in Paris at four times the cost. We are showing copies of the best creations of the leading modistes at a fraction of the price you would have to pay for the originals. Better not buy your new hat without coming here first.

Comforter Coverings.

Another sale of them this week. About ten days ago we advertised a lot of prints for comforter coverings and dress purposes, expecting we had enough to last a week; but at the end of the first days' sale they were about cleaned out, with the result that many customers were disappointed. Direct from the mill we have received another two case lot consisting of 3000 yards, if anything a better lot than before; colors are black and white, silver greys, blues, reds, &c. They are Simpson's best standard prints and usually retail at 6c; for this sale price will be the same as at the former sale 3 1/2c per yard.

Beyond Dispute....

.....For Fit Style and Wearing Qualities are

Our Men's Shoes

.....FOR THIS FALL.....

The accompanying cut shows the "ENGLISH BULL DOG LAST."

This last has a broad tread. We are showing it in a box calf with the new 'Reka lining' on this toe. An absolutely winter Shoe; brass oval eyelets and hooks; no better made, $5.00.

On the modified bull dog coin last we are showing a box calf with rope stitched edge, at $4.00.

Also a Russia Calf, winter tan, with the rope stitch edge, at $4.00.

This cut shows our New POLAR CALF....

Another swell Shoe, dark brown shade, for winter wear, chrome kid lined, heavy extension edge sole, and waterproof, $5.00.

We have the Willow Calf on a little narrower toed last, made up same as the Polar Calf, waterproof, $5.00.

We also have the Black Vici in heavy extension sole, with chrome tanned kid lining. This is a dressy Shoe and can be worn without a rubber or an overshoe.

We have the best $1.50 Man's Shoe on earth, on any toe, lace and congress. Look for us. We are the Foot Fitting Shoe Men, on the Bridge.

BENNETT & LUBY.

Most Every Young Fellow...

Has an idea that in order to be the owner of a Dress Suit...

He must "plank" down from $50 to $75 to his tailor, and, with most of them that is a larger amount than they feel able to put into such an article. It is not necessary to pay so much for a Dress Suit we can assure every young man in town.

$30 to $35

Will buy a Suit equal in every way to the custom-made $50 and $75 garments. We take your measure, send it to the STEIN-BLOCH CO. and guarantee you a perfect fit.

The Clothes Don't Make the Man

But a Dress Suit at a swell party goes a long way toward giving the wearer a most comfortable feeling and insures him a better time than if he did not have it on. For $20 to $25 we sell you a Dress Suit from stock equal to any $40 tailor made Suit. The full Dress Suit--the dress of society--never radically changes; can be worn for years, and always ready to wear when you need it.

New ideas in Shirt Protectors for evening dress; high cut to protect the collar, of satins and silk, Scotch Plaid and Roman stripe, silk lining, $1.50 to $2.00. Full Dress Ties, String Ties, four fold in 3-4, 7-8, and 1-inch widths. 10c to 25c; fall styles. Ready tied Bows, same appearance as those you tie yourself, 10c to 25c. White Kid Gloves are popular for evening wear, latest styles, $1.00 to $1.50. Shirts, Handkerchiefs, Studs and Cuff Buttons for evening wear--all the proper sort.
